

THE MAN'S STORE—Official Weather Report—Cloudy.

Gee! Whiz!

We're Busy at The Man's StoreWarm weather—
Good clothing—
Confidence of the public—
We've got 'em all—
It's a combination you can't beat!Get a "hump" on!
Get into a$20 M. S. M. Suit
$15.15Time is ripe—get into a stripe!
They're worth twenty—it's a "pipe."

Money's Worth or Money Back.

D. J. Kaufman
(INCORPORATED.)
1005-7 Penna. Avenue

The Town Crier

Mrs. Mountford will lecture on "The Life of Christ" at St. Stephen's Episcopal parish hall, Fourteenth street and Columbia road, this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Columbia Association of Baptist Churches will hold its annual session at Anacostia Baptist Church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Members of "The Bird of Paradise" company tonight will entertain the Elks' Club, following its regular meeting.

The Men's Club of Grace Episcopal Church, Georgetown, will meet at the parish hall, Wisconsin avenue and South street northwest, at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Mt. Ranier firemen will hold an entertainment in their hall this evening, at which several members and friends of the organization will present "The Road to Tipperary" for the benefit of the company.

Two plays—"The Burglar's Alarm" and "Mrs. Oakley's Telephone"—will be presented by the Round Table Club of the Y. W. C. A. in the parish hall of the Church of the Epiphany this evening at 8 o'clock.

Martha Chapter of the Eastern Star will hold its May festival and dance at the New Ebbitt at 8 o'clock this evening.

Members of the Federation of Women's Clubs of the District will have luncheon at the New Ebbitt this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The committees of the Ashler Club having charge of the arrangements for the club's "Ladies' Night" will meet at the New Ebbitt this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Citizens' Association of Chevy Chase will meet at Chevy Chase School House this evening at 8 o'clock to hear a lecture by D. F. Hewett on South America.

Members of the Association of the Oldest Inhabitants will hold their meeting at Union Engine House, Nineteenth and H streets northwest, this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Presentation day exercises, in which prizes will be given the students for the year's work, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the chapel at Kendall Green. A reception will follow at the home of the president of the institution, lasting until 6 o'clock.

Riverdale residents will hold a masquerade ball at the town hall on the evening of May 10, the proceeds of which will go to charity. A special orchestra will play and refreshments will be served by Mrs. Charles Dunlap.

The Cranch-Tyler Home and School Association will be addressed tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Tyler School by A. T. Stuart. Miss E. C. Shedd will review a book and Miss Marian Lerner will give vocal selections.

Prof. William H. Hart, of Howard University Law School, will address the closing meeting of the campaign being conducted for the Bradshaw-Marshall ticket for delegates to the Republican national convention, which meeting will be held tomorrow evening at Galilean Fisherman's Hall, F street between Third and Four-and-a-half streets.

Colored laborers of the Federal government will meet at Cadets' Armory on Monday night to discuss unionism. L. A. Sterne, of the American Federation of Labor, will preside.

Members of the Potomac Memorial Association will meet at the Hotel Bellevue tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Persons wishing to pass the test for next year's training class to be in readiness for appointment to positions in the Public Library will be permitted to be held at the Raleigh Hotel at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

The Board of Education will meet on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Franklin School, instead of today at that hour.

Miss Josephine C. Lock will address a meeting of the Women's Peace Society to be held at the Raleigh Hotel at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

The Anti-War League will hold a public meeting to discuss the question of "Peace or War" at Public Library tonight at 8 o'clock. Speakers will be Gen. Sherwood, Representative from Ohio, and Rev. Martin L. O'Donoghue, of the Roman Catholic Church.

Rev. Dr. D. H. Martin, pastor of Dumbarton Avenue M. E. Church, will address the students of George Washington University this afternoon at 12:15 o'clock in the assembly hall of the arts and sciences building, 2023 G street northwest, at the weekly chapel service on "John Ruskin."

Columbia Lodge, No. 126, Loyal Order of Moose, will give a smoker and musical at Moore Hall, 435 G street northwest, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Announcements were sent out yesterday by N. Waldo Kennedy, national director.

"The National Honor—Should the Working People Go to War to Defend It?" is the subject of a lecture to be delivered by Julian Pierce, Socialist party national committeeman for the District, at 8 o'clock tonight at a street meeting at Pennsylvania avenue and Eighth street northwest.

$200,000 Patten Suits Thrown Out. Chicago, May 2.—John A. Patten's suit for $200,000 damages against the American Medical Association for attacks on himself and his medical preparation was stricken from the records of the Federal Court today.

About twenty-five words of five letters each can be sent by the Morse signals in a minute; about sixty a minute by the Hughes system, and about 350 by the Wheatstone system.

Purely Personal

James B. Reynolds, of Washington, is registered at the Vanderbilt Hotel, New York City.

Harold P. Stimson has received an appointment as a laboratory assistant in the Bureau of Standards.

Passed Assistant Surgeon Henry F. Dillard, U. S. N., late of the Celtic, is in Washington to take up his recently assigned duties in the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery of the Navy Department.

Leo T. Farrell has received an appointment as a copyist in the General Land Office.

Kenneth M. Moore, West Point cadet, who was operated upon for appendicitis by W. C. Borden, dean of the George Washington University Hospital, is reported to be improving rapidly.

Harry Gottlieb has been appointed a clerk in the Indian Office.

James I. White, a clerk in the Patent Office, has been transferred to the Department of Agriculture.

Walter Cooper, senior statistician for the Public Utilities Commission, returned yesterday from Minneapolis, where he spent several days.

Theodore L. Ricketts, clerk in the office of the Public Utilities, was off sick Monday.

Henry S. Grogan, mail clerk at the Raleigh for some time, has resigned to become night clerk at the Lafayette, the new hotel at Sixteenth and I streets northwest.

John O'Day, crack polo player of Deal Beach, N. J., is at the Powhatan Hotel for a short stay. Mr. O'Day has a number of polo ponies with him.

John Fox, Jr., author of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," and other popular plays; David Belasco, and Rol Cooper Meguire, author of "A Lucky Fellow," were among the prominent guests at the Shoreham last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, enroute to Atlanta, Ga., from New York, stopped off in Washington Saturday and spent the week-end at the New Willard.

Miss Dorothy Boucher has returned to Washington after a visit to friends in New York.

Dr. W. W. Willoughby, of Johns Hopkins University, who is expected to leave for China in the near future on a special mission, will be the luncheon guest today of Vi Kyuin Wellington Koo, Chinese Minister to the United States.

James Martin, of Washington, and Mrs. Grace Flood, of Annapolis, were married Saturday at the parsonage of St. Aloysius Church. The couple will reside at 648 F street northeast, after returning from a honeymoon.

Miss Blanche Levy has returned after a brief visit to friends in New York.

Mrs. Gray and her daughter, Frances Elizabeth, returned Sunday evening from Annapolis, after a week-end visit at Carvel Hall. Mrs. Flower and daughter, Katherine; Miss Margaret Wilkey and Mr. Wade P. Lane, of Washington, and Midshipmen Maps and Porter, were their guests at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burkhardt and Miss Helen Burkhardt, of Washington, have been entertaining Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Capon, of Philadelphia, at Atlantic City.

George R. Benham has returned to Washington after a visit of several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barnet Benham, at Cumberland, Md.

Mrs. Robert Fuller and her children, who recently visited Mrs. D. James Coleman at her home in Culpeper, Va., have returned to their home in Riggs place, Washington.

Howard Acton, connected with the publicity bureau of one of the Republican candidates for the Presidential nomination, spent Saturday and Sunday in Washington.

Raymond McKittrick has returned to Washington after a visit of a few days with relatives at Laurel, Md.

Miss Emma Mason, of Washington, is spending several weeks as the guest of Judge and Mrs. George Smith, at Frederick, Md.

Old Lipton Yacht Sunk.

London, May 2.—The armed yacht Agave, which the admiralty last night announced had been sunk in the Mediterranean by a mine with the loss of six men, was formerly the Erin, the famous yacht of Sir Thomas Lipton, it was learned today. The vessel was renamed when taken into the British naval service.

LOCAL MENTION.

Barrels of Fun. Chaplin in the Park. Va. Theater today. Home of Charley, 5c.

Choice white potatoes, 32c pk; best tea, 49c; Wonder coffee, 20c; fat Norwalk mackerel, 5 and 7c; white meal, 2c lb; Jelly Mints, 15c; walnuts, 12c; grape juice, qts., 25c; Gold Medal oats, 7c; codfish, 5c; 4 lbs. fancy head rice, 25c; 4 lbs. Lima beans, 25c; 4 Rose whole wheat biscuits, 25c; 4 spaghetti, 25c; 4 Wisconsin peas, 25c; 4 sugar corn, 25c; 4 Karo syrup, 25c; 6 cans Stanley peas, 25c; 5 sugar corn, 25c; 2 cans tuna fish, 25c; 3 large cans beans, 25c; 2 cans evaporated milk, 15c; 2 cans stringless beans, 15c; white pepper, 25c; best flour, $5.50 bbl.; 24 lbs. Old Time flour, 75c; 412 4th St. S. E. and the J. D. T. Pyles stores.

KENSINGTON.

"Chevy Chase" cars to Rock Creek Bridge, Main Entrance 230, connect with Kensington line. Most picturesque route. Picnic grounds at end of ride.

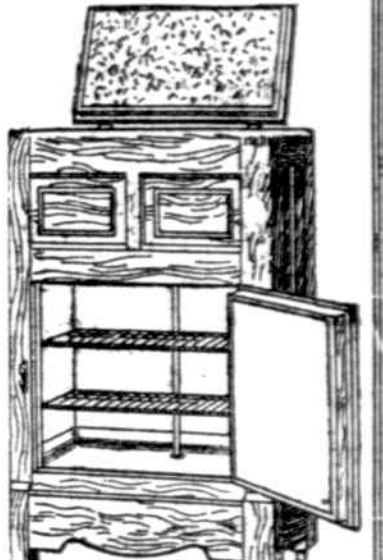

We Stand by Our Principles

Years ago we adopted as our policy this motto: "Satisfaction First." And every item we offer you, every price we quote must square true with that. There's nothing we prize higher than our customers' confidence—nothing we strive harder to deserve.

HOUSE & HERRMANN

Tested Refrigerators

We wouldn't think of offering you a Refrigerator that we hadn't put to the critical test and proven its merit. For that reason you'll find here only the makes that satisfaction has made popular. But they are attractively priced—within everybody's reach.

Note These
Special Prices

Attractive hardwood case, with galvanized lining; spacious provision chamber, with removable shelf and ample ice capacity to insure perfect refrigeration. This in many sizes. The popular size.

Price $5.85 Our Special $22.50

CREX GRASS RUGS

TRADE MARK REG. U.S. PAT. OFF. The genuine of these Summer Floor Coverings here—in full variety of sizes and new designs. And at lowest prices.

Porch Swings

Complete as you see it, except the little lady. Furned Oak; safely assembled and chains ready for hanging. It's four feet wide, comfortable seat and back.

HOUSE & HERRMANN
Seventh and Eye Streets

NINE PERSONS INJURED
IN STREET CAR CRASH

Passengers Shaken Up by Railway Collision on Brookland Line. Injuries Not Serious.

A rear-end street railway collision on the Brookland line during the morning rush hours yesterday, when open car No. 1643, backed into closed car No. 348, both southbound, at North Capitol and R streets, resulted in the injury of nine persons and the shaking up of a number of passengers on their way to work.

Mrs. M. A. Bremer, who was visiting relatives at 11 R street northeast, suffered lacerations on the scalp and shock. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCleary, her daughter and son-in-law, of the same address, also received sprains and bruises.

Others injured were Irene Clavellaux, 3000 North Capitol street, minor cuts and shock; C. F. Pollock, 19 U street northeast, bruises on hands and body; Grace Schreiner, 174 U street northeast, bruises and shock; George Morrison, 26 Randolph street, bruises; J. E. Wilson, 122 New-ton street northeast, badly shaken up and bruised; M. Wallace, same address, lacerated hand.

Beautiful Spring Flowers—and artistic floral decorations for all social functions. Gude, 1214 F st.—Adv.

TYPEWRITER SALE

We Offer Subject To Prior Sale TODAY A Stock of Thoroughly Reliable High-Grade Visibles

CHOICE UNDERWOODS $25
Guaranteed MONARCHS
PERFECT REMINGTONS
SMITHS
OLIVERS, Only

Extra A Few No. 6 and 7 REMINGTONS $10.00
Excellent for Summer Practice, Only

THE TYPEWRITER COMPANY,

233 WOODWARD BUILDING.

MAEN 5275.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—There Seems to Be Too Much Saving for Comfort.

BY F. LEIPZIGER